Projects

Quality control (a case study of Uniben Bakery)

9/2019 - 11/12/2019

Did an extensive research on this topic for my final year project in the University, taking a look at the standard weight and sizes of uniben bread, as well as defections.

Factors responsible for poor academic performance in Nigerian students, (case study, uniben)

3/10/2018 - 3/10/2018

Took part in a field work project in which i and my coursemates were broken up in different groups on different tasks to each groups. In my group, we were tasked with a project on finding out what caused poor performance among Nigerian students, we printed out questionnaires and gave out to students and lecturers, worked on the answers we got using Excel and SPSS.
